“First ever bake sale this year” was a great success thanks to Anna Thomas and her hard work. Sales and donations totaled over $1,000.

ANNA THOMAS

This is how Angie summed up results of the Bake Sale: “Our Bake Sale last weekend was a success! From sales and donations, we raised $1006.36. Thanks to Anna for her leadership with this new project. The proceeds will be shared equally between The Caring Place and the NC Foundation for the Prevention of Child Abuse.”

BOARD AND CLUB MEETING

During our Board Meeting it was decided to postpone the Roadside trash pickup because of a very busy schedule on Saturday, April 27. Will let everyone know the new date of the Roadside Pickup....

Maybe May 11

The District Board of Directors meeting will go on and will start about 10 AM. Refreshments and lunch will be provided by members of the Swift Creek Exchange Club

Yes! Barbeque was one of the main topics of discussion during our meeting. We have been selling and delivering plates of BBQ for about 20 years. Each year the club members go out into the neighbor hoods and businesses to sell plates of barbeque.

More than just BBQ, the meals include potato salad, slaw, roll, and a dessert. We think that is a pretty good meal for only $9.00. So, if you want to help, contact Marvin Pate or any member of the Swift Creek Exchange Club.
